

GOVERNMENT INTERNSHIPS ABROAD
Description	Government interns may work for political parties, city or regional councils, or independent organizations working with government policy. Interns research political issues, prepare documents and governmental materials, compile and proofread reports, and attend or help to run special events and meetings. Government interns may also do administrative tasks as part of their internship.
Area	Interns who want to be involved in the crafting of public policy need practical experience with the processes of government, and the best way to get this experience is through an internship. Interning abroad exposes interns to the different ways governments are run in different parts of the world, giving them a more global perspective.
Organization Type	Public Practice
City	Córdoba City – Rural areas – Small municipalities
Work Schedule	This position requires a minimum time commitment of 20 hours per week. Minimum commitment: 4 weeks. Low activity in January.
Primary Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Give presentations Administrative tasks and research political issues Prepare documents and governmental materials Help to run special events and meetings Campaign support and voter contact efforts Monitor news and social media Staff support: staff press and party events and provide support for the communications department, maintain a calendar of earned media events
Qualifications & Studies	This internship is particularly recommendable for students in Public Affairs, Public Administration, Political and Social Science, Law, International Relation, Anthropology and Sociology.
Required Skills	Strong interest in government work and a willingness to learn from new systems of government. Creativity, flexibility and pro-activity.

	Excellent interpersonal and social skills. Interns must also have good communication, organization, and research skills Be strongly self-motivated. Interns must be able to meet deadlines, adjust to unfamiliar circumstances, think creatively, and work both independently and in groups. Responsibility and commitment
Application Requirements	Over 18 years old up to 35. University student or graduated. Correlation between your studies and/or work experience and the placement you are requesting. Level of Spanish: intermediate +. Adaptable to other cultures, lifestyles and conceptions of work. Commitment to the Host Organization, its rules and tasks. Accident, illness and third party liability insurance coverage.

Please note: Responsibilities can vary according to the needs and resources of the Host Organization at the moment of your internship. This position is subject to the Host Organization's decision and depends on availability at the moment that the participant applies. Low activity in January.