DePaul Catholic has a beautiful campus and has recently upgraded its facilities, and incorporated high level technology in classrooms, so that the learning environment will continue to meet the needs of the students. College Acceptance Rate 99%.

A large Catholic high school with a wide choice of academics and student activities only half an hour away from NYC – Welcome to DePaul Catholic High School.

Academics

Each academic department reinforces writing, reading, and speaking across the curriculum. The expectation is that DePaul Catholic students will grow to express themselves clearly, concisely, and correctly in all disciplines. Students are graded quarterly and must take semester and final examinations in all academic areas. Mid-quarter progress reports and quarterly parent-teacher conferences ensure that students experiencing academic difficulty are identified and helped. Teachers are readily available for extra help, and peer tutoring through the National Honor Society is also an option.

The program of studies offered at DePaul Catholic High School seeks to equip college-bound students with a foundation for the pursuit of academic excellence while emphasizing a curriculum tailored for individual differences. In addition to acquiring basic skills, virtues, and habits necessary for success in higher education, students learn to apply their knowledge and training toward their on-going development of the Whole Person.
