

DeSales High School

Walla Walla, Washington (siehe Karte)

The Walla Walla Catholic Schools are a ministry established by the three Catholic Parishes in Walla Walla to provide a Christian based education for pre-school through high school aged children regardless of religious affiliation. With our goal of Education for life, the continued characteristics of members of the DeSales community are; To be of Service, To be Spiritual, To be Respectful, To be your Best.

Location

The name of the town Walla Walla is of Indian origin and means "many waters". The Walla Walla Valley is a rainbow of scenic beauty -- golden hillsides melting into broad expanses of crimson fields. Lush evergreens casting shadows over backcountry trails during noon-day sun. And the many waters, which give the region its name, sparkle as they flow to the mighty Snake and Columbia rivers. Area population 30,000. Located 4 hours 30 minutes southeast of Seattle. Town website: www.wallawalla.org.
