

Holy Trinity High School

Winsted, Minnesota (siehe Karte)

Founded in 1883 Holy Trinity High School is a private catholic school with our campus located in the heart of Winsted only one hour-drive from Minneapolis. A wide range of academic subjects and extracurricular activities are offered. Academic standards are high and students are expected to perform in order to grade well. Furthermore, in order to graduate from Holy Trinity High School, students must complete volunteer hours for the community. 11-12th graders are required to give four hours of their time per quarter in service to the community.

Holy Trinity Catholic High School students are prepared for the next stage in their life by a rigorous required schedule of classes including English, mathematics, social studies, science, and religion. In addition, they enjoy a wide selection of elective courses.

Preparing students to meet the challenges of today's world. Welcome to Holy Trinity High School!

Community Information

Winsted is a lakeside town with a lot to offer including a local airport. The citizens of Winsted are proud of their town and make sure there is always something going on with music festivals and other events always on the agenda. Winsted is a safe and very suitable place for international students to enjoy their time. Minneapolis is accessible to the students and there will be possibilities to visit this major city on weekends and holidays. Minneapolis is the biggest city in Minnesota with around 400 000 people living in the city limits. Like any big city Minneapolis has a lot to offer visitors and inhabitants alike. Why not visit the famous Midtown Global Market when you are there. It is very likely that you will find food from your country! If you are interested in sports you can watch the Vikings play football, Timberwolves play basketball or the Wild play hockey!
