Edmond, Oklahoma (siehe Karte)

Founded in 1987 Oklahoma Christian Academy is a young school located in Edmond, Oklahoma. Whether you come to OCA as a student, parent, or teacher, you will have an incredible experience. You will join a community whose mission is to "Educate for Eternity". You will experience excellence in all programs, and you will be challenged to grow in all areas: spiritually, academically, socially and physically. You will be given the opportunity to participate in extra-curricular activities: sports, music/drama, debate, academic meets, honor societies, and service projects. Athletics plays an important part in the day to day life of the students at Oklahoma Christian Academy and international students are encouraged to join one of the teams be it for football, baseball, track or why not try cheer leading!

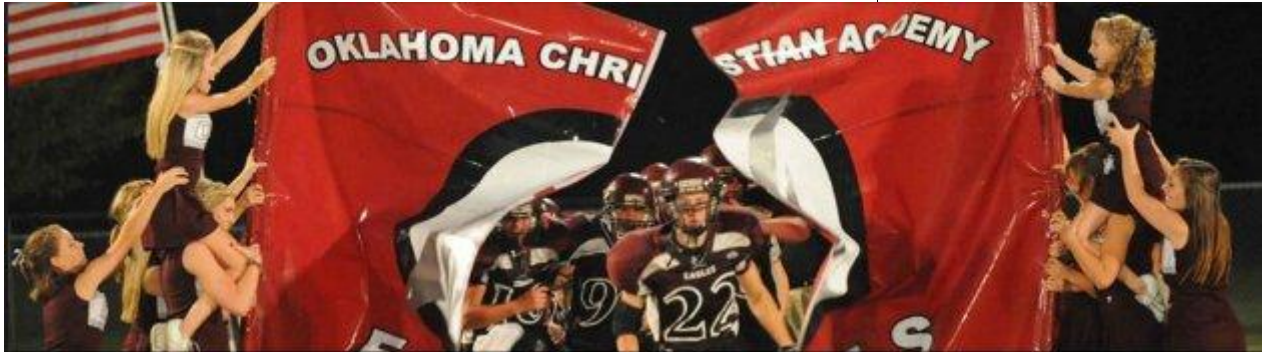

College Acceptance Rate 95%. The graduating class of 2009 have gone on to represent Oklahoma Christian Academy at a number of prestigious and high level colleges and universities in Oklahoma and out of state both.

Students at Oklahoma Christian Academy all live by a number of general values where two of the most important are: “Respect yourself and others” and “Take pride in our school”.

Academics

There are three AP-courses taught at Oklahoma Christian and students can challenge themselves with AP Biology, English Literature and US History at AP-level. Even though these subjects can be hard for non-native English speakers international students are still encouraged to take them and supported in their studies. The school offers a number of courses in the arts for students to enjoy. The traditional Drama and Speech classes are offered but also a few subjects that are less often found such as Screenwriting and Film.

Location

Located in Edmond Oklahoma the school is only 15 miles away from downtown Oklahoma City. Located on the famous Route 66 Edmond is a popular and interesting place to visit. It has a historic down town with tree lined streets, restaurants, shopping and entertainment. The town also offers championship golf and has hosted several PGA-events in the past. Students at Oklahoma Christian can enjoy free time in Edmond on week-ends and holidays.
